Our Common Faith (The Nicene Creed)

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of Heaven and Earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten not made, of one Being with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from Heaven; by the power of the Holy Spirit He became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made human. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried. On the third day He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead. His kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son He is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Scriptures

We confess the books of the Old and New Testaments to be the infallible Word of God divinely inspired (2 Tim 3:16), the absolute rule for all faith and conduct, and therefore also for the education of our children at home and at school.

God and Creation

Since God created all things by His Word and Spirit, we cannot understand the World rightly except in its relationship to the Triune God. Creation, as well as Scripture, has been brought forth by the one God of Truth. Therefore, any seeming discrepancy between the Bible and Science can only be due to human error either in Science or in the interpretation of Scripture. Science is truly scientific when both nature and Scripture are taken seriously.

People

People were created in the image of God, to enjoy true communion with their creator (Gen 1:26f, Acts 17:26f). They were instructed to exercise dominion over the world in strict and loving obedience to God, to interpret all reality in accordance with His design and law, and to reflect in themselves and their works the excellence of their Maker (Gen 1:28f, Ps 8:4f, Rom 1:20).

Sin

People turned their back on God their Creator and decided to be god of their own life. As a result, people are no longer in peaceful harmony with their Creator, themselves, their neighbour, or creation. Their sin has brought a curse not only on themselves but on all creation (Gen 3:16-19, Rom 8:19f). They became blind to life's true meaning and purpose and made themselves false gods of their own imagination and desires (Rom 1:18f). We have all sinned (Rom 3:23) and need to be redeemed if we are again to enjoy communion with our Creator.

Christ

The Christ of the Scriptures, the Word of God incarnate, redeems our life in its entirety, restores our fellowship with God and our neighbour, and renews our minds to rightly know God, ourselves, and the world in which we live.

Salvation

Salvation is in Jesus Christ alone (Acts 4:12), for He alone was able to pay the price of sin for us. Salvation is received as a free gift by putting our faith in Jesus Christ. We do not deserve Salvation and we cannot earn it (Eph 2:8-9).

The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Holy Trinity (2 Cor 13:14), active in all creation (Gen 1:2). Is the one who leads and guides the believer into all truth and obedience in Christ, and brings to the believer all the fullness of their inheritance in Christ (Jn 16:13-14).

The Task in Education

(a) Parents have a God-given responsibility for the nurture, discipline and instruction of their children (Eph 6:1-4). Therefore, parents are accountable to God to ensure every opportunity is provided for their child to be equipped for life; spiritually, emotionally, intellectually and physically. They may make use of the teaching and knowledge God has given to another but this in no way diminishes their own responsibility.

(b) The School's way of teaching will involve arrangement of content material into a program of study which will, in accordance with the child's particular gifts and abilities, enable them to learn as much and acquire as many skills as they can so that they may be properly equipped for service in God's world (Prov 9:9, 2 Tim 2:15, 2 Cor 5:9). This will require knowledge of the child's individual gifts and abilities, and it is part of the educational task of the School to help the child find their vocation in life (Prov 22:6). While the school is entitled to expect freedom from interference in its special task, it is required to respect and uphold all legitimate authority, in particular the authority of family, church and state, and to encourage this respect in the child according to the Word of God.

(c) The Church-Recognising that those who make up this school community come from different branches of the Church of Jesus Christ, the School leaves doctrinal teachings of particular denominations to the responsibility of those denominations. Parents are assured that the School will support the teachings of their church when in accord with the above creed, and other doctrinal differences will be left to the domain of the student's parents and church.
